

Sector Omega AS to merge with Harvest Funds AS

Sector Omega AS, the investment manager of Sector Global Equity Kernel Fund, has in October left the Sector group and has agreed to merge with Harvest Funds AS. The new company will be called Harvest Funds AS.

Sector Omega AS (“Omega”), the investment manager of Sector Global Equity Kernel Fund, has left the Sector group and has agreed to merge with Harvest Funds AS (“Harvest”). The new company will be called Harvest Funds AS (“Harvest Funds”).

The combination of Harvest’s technology platform and quantitative factor-based investment management and Omega’s investment process based on a combination of ‘Man and Machine’ will enhance the new company’s competitive- and innovative power. A stronger investment team, a robust investment process and competitive platform will serve as a powerful base for the development of Harvest Funds. Mr. Atle Christiansen will continue as CEO of the new company, and J. Peter Andersland will take on the role as Chief Investment Officer.

The merger is subject to approval by the Norwegian FSA (Finanstilsynet).
